
Amy Smith Consultant and Facilitator

Jacksonville Beach, FL
866-601-3614
amys@ariacx.com

Amy has over 25 years' experience in Leadership, Learning & Development, Brand Enhancement, Program Facilitation, and Market Development. She has worked primarily in the Retail and Technology industries, including 10 years as a leader for Apple Retail.

During her tenure at Apple, she worked as an internal consultant to develop both leaders and teams globally. She was also responsible for leading dynamic, high performing teams in both Toronto and Chicago.

As a consultant, she develops and facilitates programs for clients on a global level. She has worked with teams in Europe, Asia, and North America. Amy has a deep understanding of how individuals, teams, and strategies can effectively work together to be successful and drive business performance.

Amy's unique perspective working both in corporate and field environments allows her to help create solutions for clients that are immediately applicable in real life, business situations.